Dear Parents and P4 Children,

The next of our Do This In Memory masses was originally scheduled to take place on January 19th, 2025. However, in order to tie in with the theme of Baptism, Fr Mc Caughey has requested a change to the schedule and the next mass will now take place on Saturday, Jan 11th, 2025, at 6.00pm in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. At this mass, the children will be gifted with a small bottle of holy water.

Please also note that Fr. Mc Caughey may invite the children to come forward for a blessing at Communion time. We ask that children and accompanying adult remain seated until guided forward by a member of the “Do This In Memory” team. This will happen row by row. We also request that children should approach with hands crossed over their chest.

Seats will be reserved at the front of the chapel (centre aisle) for your child and an accompanying family member. We look forward to you and your child joining us again this week and thank you in advance for your continuing support and participation.

Yours faithfully,

“Do This In Memory” Steering Group.
