

All Saints' newsletter

December 2024

Created by Mrs McGrath, Grace, Cora, Kiara, Caela, Ailish, Blathnaid and Logan (P7)

Dates for the diary.....

-Mon 16th Dec-
Christmas jumpers and dinner

-Tues 17th Dec-Santa visit

-Fri 20th Dec- Half day

-Mon 6th Jan-Children back to school

-Tues 7th Jan- Michael Gormley, Sacred Heart college visiting P7

-19-25th Jan-Catholic Schools Week

-Sunday 19th Jan-Do This in Memory mass at 12 noon in Sacred Heart Church

-22nd & 23rd Jan -School nurse

-24th Jan-P7 assembly on ambition

-25th Jan- Transfer results

P4/5

-Making eco - friendly carrier bags

-Hand art

-Fire safety talk

P3/4

Gaelic with Ben from Drumragh

Outdoor learning

Having fun outside together

Eco council

RE learning

P6/7 attended an indoor Gaelic blitz in Dromore

P6/7 made clay boats and tested if they floated in World Around Us with Miss Kirk.

Thanks to our classroom assistant and part time firefighter, Karen for organizing a visit from the fire engine. They even got to try on Karen's gear!

Daíre, Sean and Conor's boat.

The P6/7 boys who took part in the Ronnie Kelly Gaelic tournament. They came runners up in the shield!

A BABY IS BORN

Welcome baby McDonald.
Congratulations to big sister
Annie (P3) and big brother Peter
(P1) on their new baby sister. So, heartwarming!

WORLD AROUND US TOPIC

The children's topic was rhyme time and Christmas toys.

Hands on (and messy fun)
learning!

P1/2

The P1/2's rehearsed every day for their play, the Nativity and acted out so well!

NUMERACY

In Numeracy the P1/2 class are working on less than and more than, length and measuring.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Harry P2 was in the finals for Tummery. Well done!

Orla P2 does gymnastics at Aerials in Omagh.

Genan P2 does taekwondo and has achieved two belts.

Finn & Peter L- P1 do football at Drumragh football club

Gaelic start.

Show and tell