Hello!

As we end the fourth week of All Saints' being closed and try to prepare ourselves to celebrate Easter Sunday during these strange and difficult times, I want to thank you for your patience and hard work over the past few weeks. The beautiful artwork and creativeness is amazing!

Every member of the staff really misses you about the school and look forward to seeing you again whenever it's safe to do so. I have no doubt that there have been some times when things have been a bit frustrating for you and you wished you were back at school with your friends (...well maybe the 'back with your friends' bit!), but I know that you're tough, you are resilient and you will get through this with the love and support of those around you at home. It's not easy for them either at times so...be kind to each other please.

Easter Sunday is normally a time of great celebration in the church as we mark Jesus' rising from the tomb after his crucifixion on Good Friday. Even though we are all living through difficult times and can't get out and about much, the staff and I would really love you to enjoy your Easter no matter what. Forget about the work! Eat as many of those Easter Eggs as you can (why not send us a photo). You can look forward to a very special 'Welcome-Back Celebration' with each other and the staff when all this is over and you return to school please God.

Until then, keep safe, wash your hands regularly, be kind to each other and remember to say a prayer every day for all those who are ill and those who care for them.

Have a lovely Easter.

Take care,

Mr Bradley
