Copy out the paragraph and put in capital letters, full stops and commas. There are six sentences in A and five sentences in B.

A.

There once was a time when a huge, fat and spiky monster lived in the mountains. Everyone threw spears, stones, saws and boiling oils at the creature. It roared, growled, spat and groaned but still it did not die. A knight appeared, wearing bright, shining armour and pierced the bear with his special magic sword. The huge beast screamed, fell to the floor, rolled over and died. The king rewarded the knight with gold, silver, diamonds, rubies and other precious things.

B.

The robber climbed through the window, crept up the stairs and peered into the bedroom. She called as loudly as she could but no-one could hear her. The telephone was not far away, yet there was little she could do to reach it. She switched on all the lights, so the man ran away in a panic. The policeman, who arrived later, told her to put a lock on her window.
