YOUTH MATTERS

Youth Matters is a dynamic youth work service for young people under 18 with a physical disability, acquired brain injury or a diagnosis of autism.

We provide the support you need to access our activities independently.

Due to safeguarding parents and carers don't remain at activities.

If you would like to know more please contact your local youth officer

All paperwork needs returned before a young person can attend.

Geraint is our Youth Officer for the Western Trust Area
