PUPPET SHOW

As we continue our Literacy focus this week we look forward to welcoming the Banyan Theatre Company back to school tomorrow morning. Karen will be performing "The 3 Billy Goats Gruff".

P7-CYCLING PROFICIENCY

Mrs Cochrane will be sending home an information letter to P7 pupils about what is involved in completing cycling proficiency. Lessons begin on MON AFTER SCHOOL.

P4-7 INTERNET SAFETY TALKS

Sam McClure, our PSNI Community Police Officer, will be visiting our P4-7 pupils on Monday to discuss internet safety.

PTA TESCO DOOR COLLECTION

Our PTA have secured a door collection slot in Tesco on SATURDAY 2ND MAY. This is a great way to support our fundraising and promote our school in the local community. Come along and join our PTA committee for an hour and bringing your children along in their school uniform also encourages people to support us! I will send a rota list - just let me know a time slot that would suit you. Thank you for your continued support towards our fundraising efforts for school.

P6/7 RESIDENTIAL TRIP

20 pupils from P6/7 are travelling to the Share Village in Lisnaskea from 22-24th April. Look out for photos on our school facebook page and website.

Mrs Park will be teaching P1-3 while Miss Tannahill is away with Mrs Downey and the children.

P6/7 pupils in school will join the P4/5 class for the 3 days.
