EASTER UPDATE

Dear Parents/Guardians,

- Next week is Holy Week and school will finish at 11am on Holy Thursday for the Easter Holidays.

School reopens on Monday 17th April.

Children who are receiving a Sacrament in May should ideally attend at least one of the Easter religious events in the parish.

- This weekend there is a children's community concert in the Church of Ireland at 4 pm on April 2nd, the feast of St Bronach, in celebration of her life and the 200th anniversary of the Church of Ireland. It will be a mix of liturgical singing, drama, instrumental music and readings. P7 pupil Annie Brennan will do a reading to represent our school and several children are singing in the choir. It looks like it will be a wonderful event.

- The Families First Primary Awards voting system goes LIVE today on their website. As you know, Killowen Primary School received several nominations last December from parents and support agencies who have visited the school and the judging panel progressed us into the Finalist category. Now is your chance to actually help us win the award for Best Small School In Co Down by visiting their website, clicking on our school logo and leaving a positive statement about some aspect of school life that you are happy with this year. You can also vote using the link on our school website and Facebook page. You have until Tuesday 4th April @ 5pm to register your vote. The winning school will be announced at an awards ceremony in The Titanic Centre on Saturday 22nd April.
- Could all Sports for School sponsorship please be returned to school thank you.

Other events next week

Monday 3rd April: author visit and creative writing workshop from award winning children's author Stuart Reid.

Wednesday 5th April: Rec/P1 annual visit to Brennan's Farm in the morning.
P6/7 visit in the afternoon via special invitation from Annie Brennan in her last year at Killowen PS, as a trip down memory lane for the class
No guitar lessons this week as Catherine is away performing.

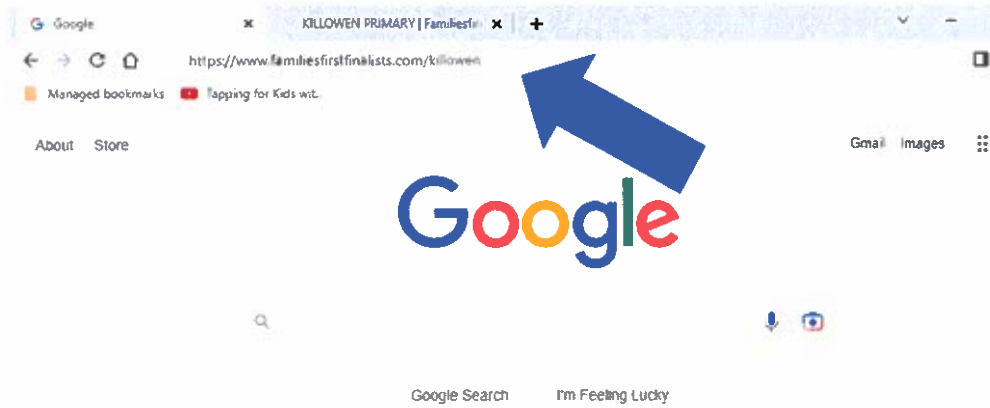

Thursday 6th April: Easter Egg Hunt supported by Friends Of Killowen School closes @ 11am.

Have a lovely, happy and healthy Easter everyone,

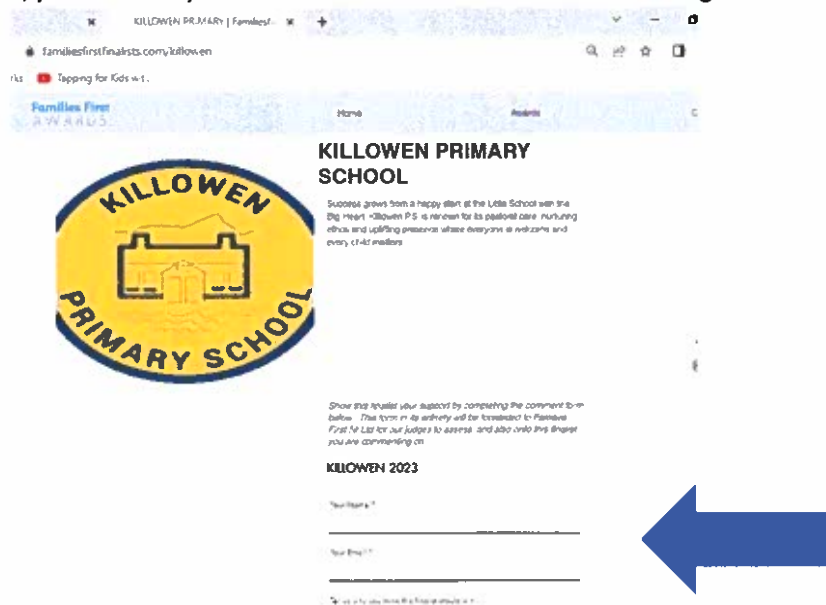

Mrs Murphy
