

Counting Skills

I enjoy counting objects.
I like saying number rhymes
and playing counting games.

Sharing and Turn taking

I can share toys and take turns.
I can play games with others.
I can talk to my friends.

Speaking and Literacy

I am interested in reading stories and looking at picture books.
I am able to talk about myself, my needs
and my feelings.
I am practising recognising my name when it is written down.
I can colour in and I am practising holding a pencil correctly.

Self-care

I know how to wash my hands well.
I can blow my nose.
I can ask for help if I don't feel well

Starting School

When your child starts P1, there are a number of skills which they will need. Use this sheet to help you keep track of how ready they are to start Primary School.

Listening and Understanding

I am able to sit still and listen to a story
for a few minutes.
I can follow simple instructions
I understand I need to follow the rules.

Getting Dressed and Undressed

I can put on and take off my jumper by myself (or with a little help!)
I can put shoes on (Velcro-not laces!)
I can put my coats on and zip it up.

Independence

I can tidy away my belongings.
I can look after my things.
I can open my packed lunch bag
by myself.
I can go to the toilet by myself.
