

Home School Agreement

December 2017

PUPIL'S RESPONSIBILITIES

I acknowledge to talents that God has given me, and that it is my responsibility to use them wisely

I will try to:

- be considerate, polite and caring to all other pupils, staff and visitors in the school
- learn something new each day and always try to do my best
- to behave sensibly and to take care of the school, its equipment and grounds

PARENT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

We acknowledge that we, as parents/carers, are the primary educators of our children and have an irreplaceable role to play in supporting our children's learning at school

I/we will:

- support the Christian values of the school and the wider Catholic community in its responsibilities to maintain the school
- ensure my child attends school regularly and on time, and does not miss school unless it is unavoidable
- ensure my child wears the school uniform and follows the school dress code
- give my child help and encouragement to do the best that they can, both at school and with any work they bring home
- inform the school of any concerns or problems that might affect my child's learning or behaviour
- keep the school informed of any changes in circumstances (i.e. address, phone number, emergency contacts etc.)
- encourage my child to be considerate and caring at all times
- attend Parent's Evenings and any discussions about my child

TEACHER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

To support parents/carers in their duty of nurturing their children towards human wholeness within the Christian community

The Teachers will:

- ensure that your children are valued for who they are and help them to make good progress in their spiritual, moral, emotional and academic development
- do their best to ensure the safety, security and physical well-being of children whilst in their care
- offer the best possible education they can for the children and encourage them to do their very best
- demonstrate their faith and our school's foundation in the teaching of Jesus Christ by the way they live, teach and worship, and offer a welcoming and stimulating Christian environment
- encourage the children to be considerate and caring
- ensure children are aware of expectations about their behaviour and the consequences of acting outside those expectations
- provide parents/carers regularly with information about their child's progress via Parents' Evenings, achievement and progress reports and weekly newsletters
- set, mark and monitor homework, as applicable
