Home Schooling

A big hand to all our parents!!

We are amazed at how well everyone has taken to home learning!! The videos/photos etc. have brighten up our days. Always remember none of this work is essential so, if you need a break or want to change the activity a little, feel free to do so!

Twitter is full of great ideas for learning at home. We'll retweet anything that we think would be helpful. So why not follow us @gorranps

Pond Watch

We have frog babies spawn!! Three large clumps of it!! Mother and babies are all doing well. No names yet! We will keep an eye on how they are developing in the coming weeks and send you updates. Does anyone know what their next stage will be?

How can Gorran Help?

We are working on a few ways that Gorran PS can support its local community.

1. Letters for Trinity House residents. We have had a lovely link with the residents over the last year and wanted to do something to brighten their days in the coming weeks and months. If your family would like to write letters, stories and draw pictures for residents. Please email gorranps@gmail.com – We will send you the first name of one of the residents and instructions on what to do next.
2. Foodbank - Ballymoney Hockey Club and Causeway Food Bank are looking for donations for food parcels. Mr C is in school on Mondays and Thursdays and if you wished to drop any donations at the front step, he will gladly pass them to either food bank on his way home.
