

Pupils of the Week in P7

Friday 4th October 2024

Congratulations to Meabh for showing an incredible level of resilience and a positive attitude all week, even in the face of such a tough personal loss last week. Her strength and determination has rippled through the room and we're all very proud of how strong she has remained!

Well done to Daire for his exceptional work ethic all week. His dedication to every task and his focus in class are shining examples of what hard work can achieve. Keep up the brilliant effort - it's really paying off!

Congratulations to Aoibheann and Sara for their excellent autumn artwork. They put in so much effort and they have produced outstanding pieces of work!

Well done to Aimee for coming back to school this week after being off, with a big smile on her face. She was brilliant at catching up with lots of her learning.

Great work
Aimee!

Pupils of the Week in P4

Friday 4th October 2024

Congratulations to Abaigh, Gracie, Joseph, Kitty-Anne, Therese and Mea for all achieving over 100 points in Studyladder which earned them a bronze certificate. They have worked really hard in school and at home to consolidate their learning through the activities they have completed. We are so proud of them and hope that more children will earn certificates very soon!

Pupils of the Week in P3

Friday 4th October 2024

Congratulations to Nori and Fiadh for being two kind and considerate children and who are so well-mannered and are always smiling. They are a treat to have in the classroom!

Well done Turloch and Brilynn for sitting so quietly and attentively during mass.

Congrats to Paidi for saying his bidding prayer so confidently and with a lovely clear voice!

Pupils of the Week in P2

Friday 4th October 2024

Congratulations to Aoife for always persevering at her work and for wanting to get it all completed. She never gives up!

Well done to Lylah-Rose for working so hard at her phonics activities. She is becoming more confident at saying her sounds and blending them to read the words. Well done!

Pupils of the Week in P1

Friday 4th October 2024

Congratulations to Saoirse and James for showing kindness to their friends when they are feeling sad or hurt. Saoirse and James are always there to make sure that they are ok!

Well done Saoirse and Aodh for showing how to such a good friend.

They always include people in their games and are great at sharing and playing fairly.
