Friday 28th March 2025

Congratulations to Padraig for the outstanding good manners that he displays in and out of the classroom. He is always willing to contribute to all lessons and demonstrates superb mental maths skills! Miss Devlin thinks you are a joy to teach! Well done to Meabh for her outstanding contribution to Miss Devlin's Science lessons during her inspector's visit. Her dance moves stood out a mile and brought such positivity to the lesson.

Comhghairdeachas to Aine for the amazing enthusiasm she showed during basketball. She is also brilliant at encouraging her teammates.

Well done to Enda for the tremendous work he is putting into his times tables. It is evident that he is practising them, recalling them accurately and he has made it to this term's mental maths final.

Maith sibh!

Congratulations to all of the Primary 4 children for the way they celebrated their First Penance so brilliantly last night.

They said their prayers, sang their Zacchaeus song and did their confessions so reverently and so sincerely. We were all so proud of them as we continue on our journey of faith together!

Go hiontach!

Pupils of the Week in P3

Friday 28th March 2025

Congratulations Nori, Cadhla and Connie-Mae for the positive attitude they display towards their work. They try their best at everything they do and are always happy and smiling!

A big bualadh bos for Conan for recognising tricky spellings and for trying to find was to help him to remember these difficult words!

Pupils of the Week in P2

Friday 28th March 2025

Congratulations to Breannan for his super use of the word 'symmetrical' to describe how a butterfly's wings are the same on each side.

Maith Thú to Sean for doing fantastic reading with Mrs Tuohey. He is great at using his sounds to work out tricky words.

A Bualadh bos for Elsie and Chloe for being lovely friends to everyone in the P2 class. They always use kind words and they make sure that no-one is left out..

Pupils of the Week in P1

Friday 28th March 2025

Comhghairdeachas to Alice for showing great concentration and determination to succeed when we were investigating ways to make 9. She worked very well independently.

Well done to Fionn, James, Killian and Saoirse for the creative poems they wrote about spring. Their descriptions were imaginative and they were a treat to read!!

Go hiontach!
