A Thuismitheoirí,

Gaelscoil Uí Néill are performing a whole-school show in Craic Theatre on Wednesday, 27th March and Friday, 29th March. Pupils from Naíscoil, Rang 1 & Rang 2 will perform 'Bears, Bears, Bears' and pupils from Rang 3 – 7 will perform 'The Pied Piper of the Island'. The school will provide costumes, however, children must wear the following as part of their costume:

- Naíscoil – Rang 3: Black, long-sleeved top and black leggings (or plain black trousers/jogging bottoms)
- Rang 4 girls: Black, long-sleeved top and black leggings
- Rang 4 boys: A pair of old school trousers cut up into knee-length, raggedy shorts and a plain white polo t-shirt
- Rang 5: Black, long-sleeved top and black leggings (or plain black trousers/jogging bottoms)
- Rang 6 & 7 girls: Black long-sleeved top and black leggings
- Rang 6 & 7 boys: School trousers and a black, long-sleeved top

Please note that all black tops and bottoms must be plain black with no other colours or logos on them. Clothes should be sent to school in a bag with your child's name on it by Friday 1st March, and will be kept in school until the week of the show.

Children will have to learn the words of the songs and their lines (where necessary) as part of their homework. Recordings will be e-mailed to the parents of the narrators in Rang 6 & 7 this week to help them practise their lines.

Tickets will go on sale from Craic Theatre this Friday, 15th February at 9.00am. We advise parents to book tickets early to avoid missing out.

Thank you for your support,

Jayne & Mairéad
