P7 Sign Language Classes

Pupils from Primary 7 will receive a three-week Sign Language Course beginning next week, Thursday, 29th November. This course is free of charge and is provided by St. Joseph's Centre for the Deaf in Belfast.

Christmas is Coming

Please find enclosed your child's order form for her/his Christmas Card design (only applicable to those children who submitted a design). Please fill in your order and return it to school by next Wednesday, 28th November with the appropriate money.

As we are planning a whole-school production in the Craic Theatre in March next year, we have decided not to put on our traditional Christmas Show this year. Instead, we will be holding a Christmas Fair in the school on Friday, 14th December. Our Christmas Week schedule this year is therefore as follows:

- Irish-language Pantomime in the school for Naíscóil and pupils from Primaries 1 and 2 on Monday, 10th December.
- Christmas Jumper/Attire Day on Tuesday, 11th December (prizes for the most Christmassy costumes).
- Pupils from Primaries 3 – 7 will be going to the Marketplace Theatre in Armagh to see Little Red Riding Hood on Wednesday, 12th December.
- Christmas Dinner on Thursday, 13th December (Christmas attire also obligatory).
- Christmas Fair on Friday, 14th December incorporating: carols from the Naíscóil, 5-minute show from Primary 1, Primary 2 Nativity Play, Primaries 3/4 signed Carol Service and a Christmas Craft Fair and Tombola from pupils in Primaries 5 – 7. We will also be running our Scholastic Book Fair throughout Christmas Week as well as a raffle for a Christmas Hamper.
- Christmas Disco in Clonoe Community Centre on Friday, 14th December.

Specific details will be issued closer to the time.

In anticipation of Christmas Week, we would be very grateful for any donations of old Christmas decorations or items for the Tombola e.g. treats, games, toys, toiletries, gift sets or any of the gifts you got last Christmas that you would like to get rid of before Santa comes a calling this year again.

The Christmas Fair will hopefully raise some much-needed funds for the school, but it is important that we do not forget the less well-off at Christmas and we would like to continue our tradition of nominating a charity and asking parents, rather than buying a gift for the teachers at Christmas, to kindly make a donation to this nominated charity through the school. This year's charity is The Brain Tumour Charity. We can accept donations for this charity up until the last day of school, Friday 21st December. Go raibh maith agaibh.
