The Hedgehog

The hedgehog had been eating all summer long.
Now she was big and fat.
However, winter was coming, and she felt cold.
She was ready for her long sleep.
The hedgehog made herself a bed of leaves.
She rolled herself into a ball and fell fast asleep.
During the long winter, the hedgehog stayed asleep.
At last, spring came. The sun shone on the hedgehog and she woke up.
She was happy, but she was also very hungry!
