Set 3
Book 10

The concert starts with a beautiful duet. Tonight's huge concert is sure to be a success!

Today is the day of the huge concert. The students are due at school by noon. Will they be ready?

Tonight, Tula will play the keyboard. She is excited because her family will be watching. They are her true fans!

June finally arrives just a few minutes before she is due on stage. Where is the rest of her crew? Her friends must be running late!

Truman will be playing the guitar. He is a new student who moved to the school from Utah.

Luke and Sue are already at the school. Luke is the dude with the tuba. Sue is wearing her new blue skirt.

The End

This concert will be the last one of the year. All of the students have been practicing the music for weeks.

Mrs. Buford, the music teacher, steps onto the stage. She welcomes everyone to the concert. It is time for the performance to begin.

Drew has been practicing this music for three months. He is well prepared for the concert.

6

Drew's friend, John, plays the clarinet. He likes to warm up by reviewing his favorite tune. John will be on the stage soon.

7

Look at these two sisters. Judy plays the flute. Trudy plays the triangle. Everyone listens while Judy tunes her flute before the concert.

4

Marvin is in a great mood! He is over the moon to be playing in his first concert.
