A Place for a Race

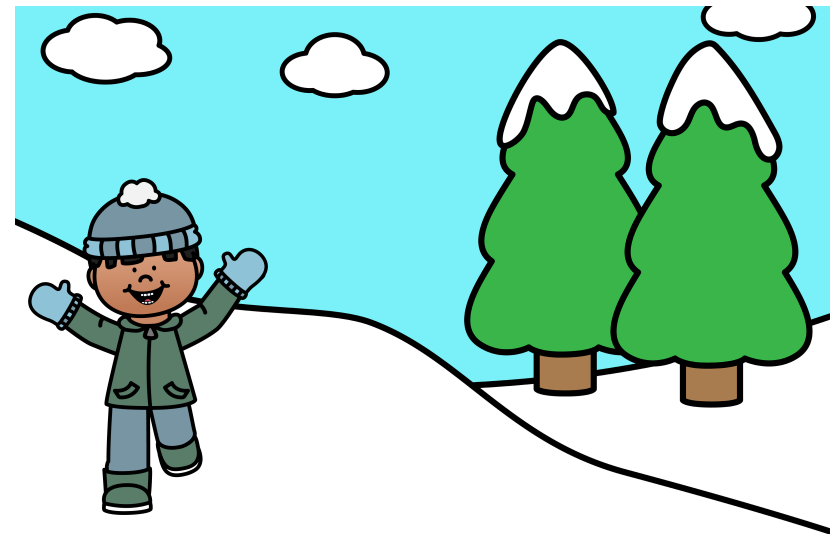

Long
A

Set 3
Book 8

Rocky, Tam, and Jade had a fun day playing in the snow! They raced down the hill many times. Then, they went home and made hot cocoa.

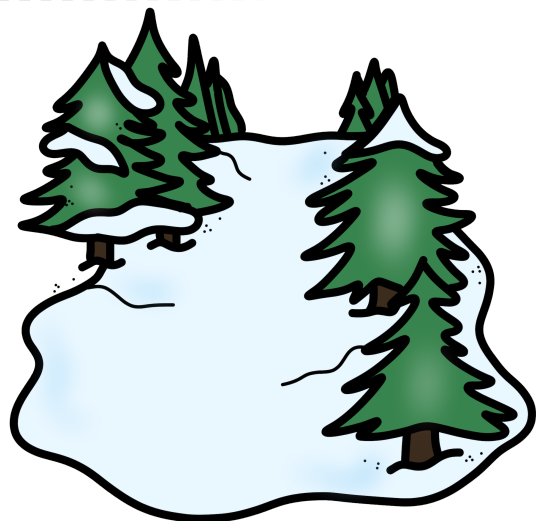

One day, Rocky came to play in the snow with Tam. They saw a great place for a race.

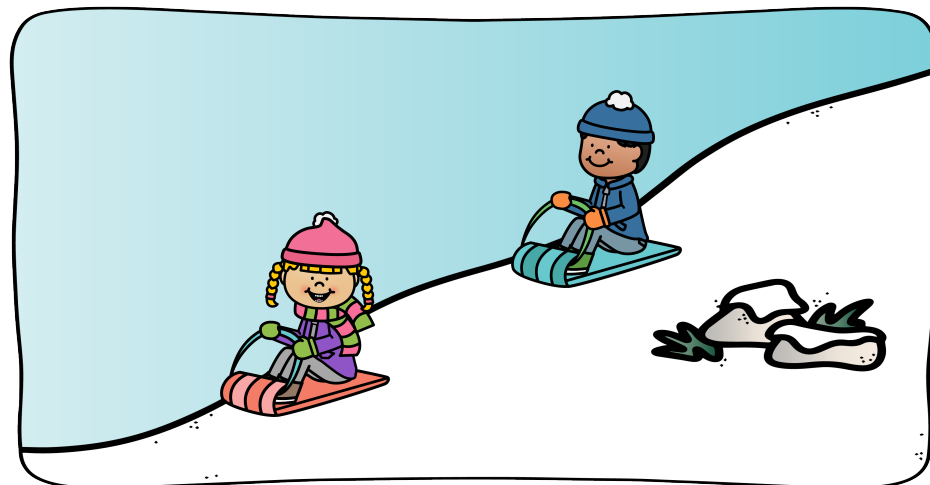

Then, Rocky came from behind. He passed Tam and got to the base of the hill first.

Tam had to stay in the race. She gave the sled another push. Tam came racing down the hill right behind Rocky.

"Sure," Rocky said. "I'll race you back up the hill." Tam took off. She chased him up the hill.

Rocky put on his game face. He chased Tam down the hill at a fast pace.

The End

Tam had one sled. She gave another sled to Rocky. Tam waved and raced down the hill.

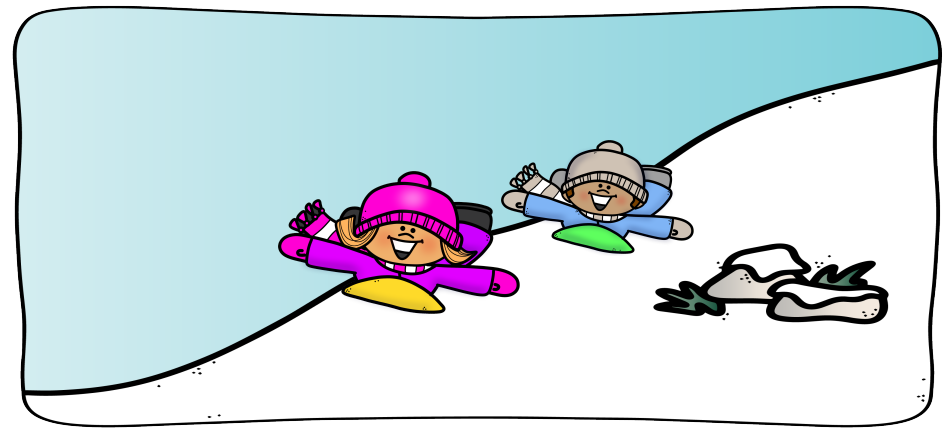

Tam's friend, Jade, came over to sled. She also wanted to race the sleds down the hill.

As the space between them got shorter, Rocky got faster. He could not stay at the same pace and still

Tam got faster, too. She passed him halfway down the hill. As she passed him, Tam waved to Rocky and yelled, "Goodbye!"

"There is no way you can win this race," Rocky yelled bravely. Snow sprayed Tam in the face as he raced past her.

"Great race!" Tam said when she came in second. "You got first place! Do you want to race again?"
