

Welcome to Infinity Forest

Hello, I'm Elvis Dragon,
But not like one you've seen,
With purple claws and greyish paws,
Ears orange as baked beans.

My tummy is a pattern,
I can change in any way,
Stripes, dots or zigzags -
It's different every day!

I live in a world not far from here:
The Forest of Infinity!
A secret place not many know,
With endless things to see.

Want to go? Jump on my back,
Together we will soar!
To the land of Infinity Forest,
Where there's so much to explore.

Viv Vole and Maud Mole own the cake shop,
They eat profiteroles and they knit non-stop.

Busy Mayor Meerkat is having a meeting,
On who lives where and what they are eating.

Ravi Rooster is a rock superstar,
His voice brings fans from near and far.

Sir Sidney Sturgeon, the best surgeon of all,
Will fix all your injuries if you have a fall.

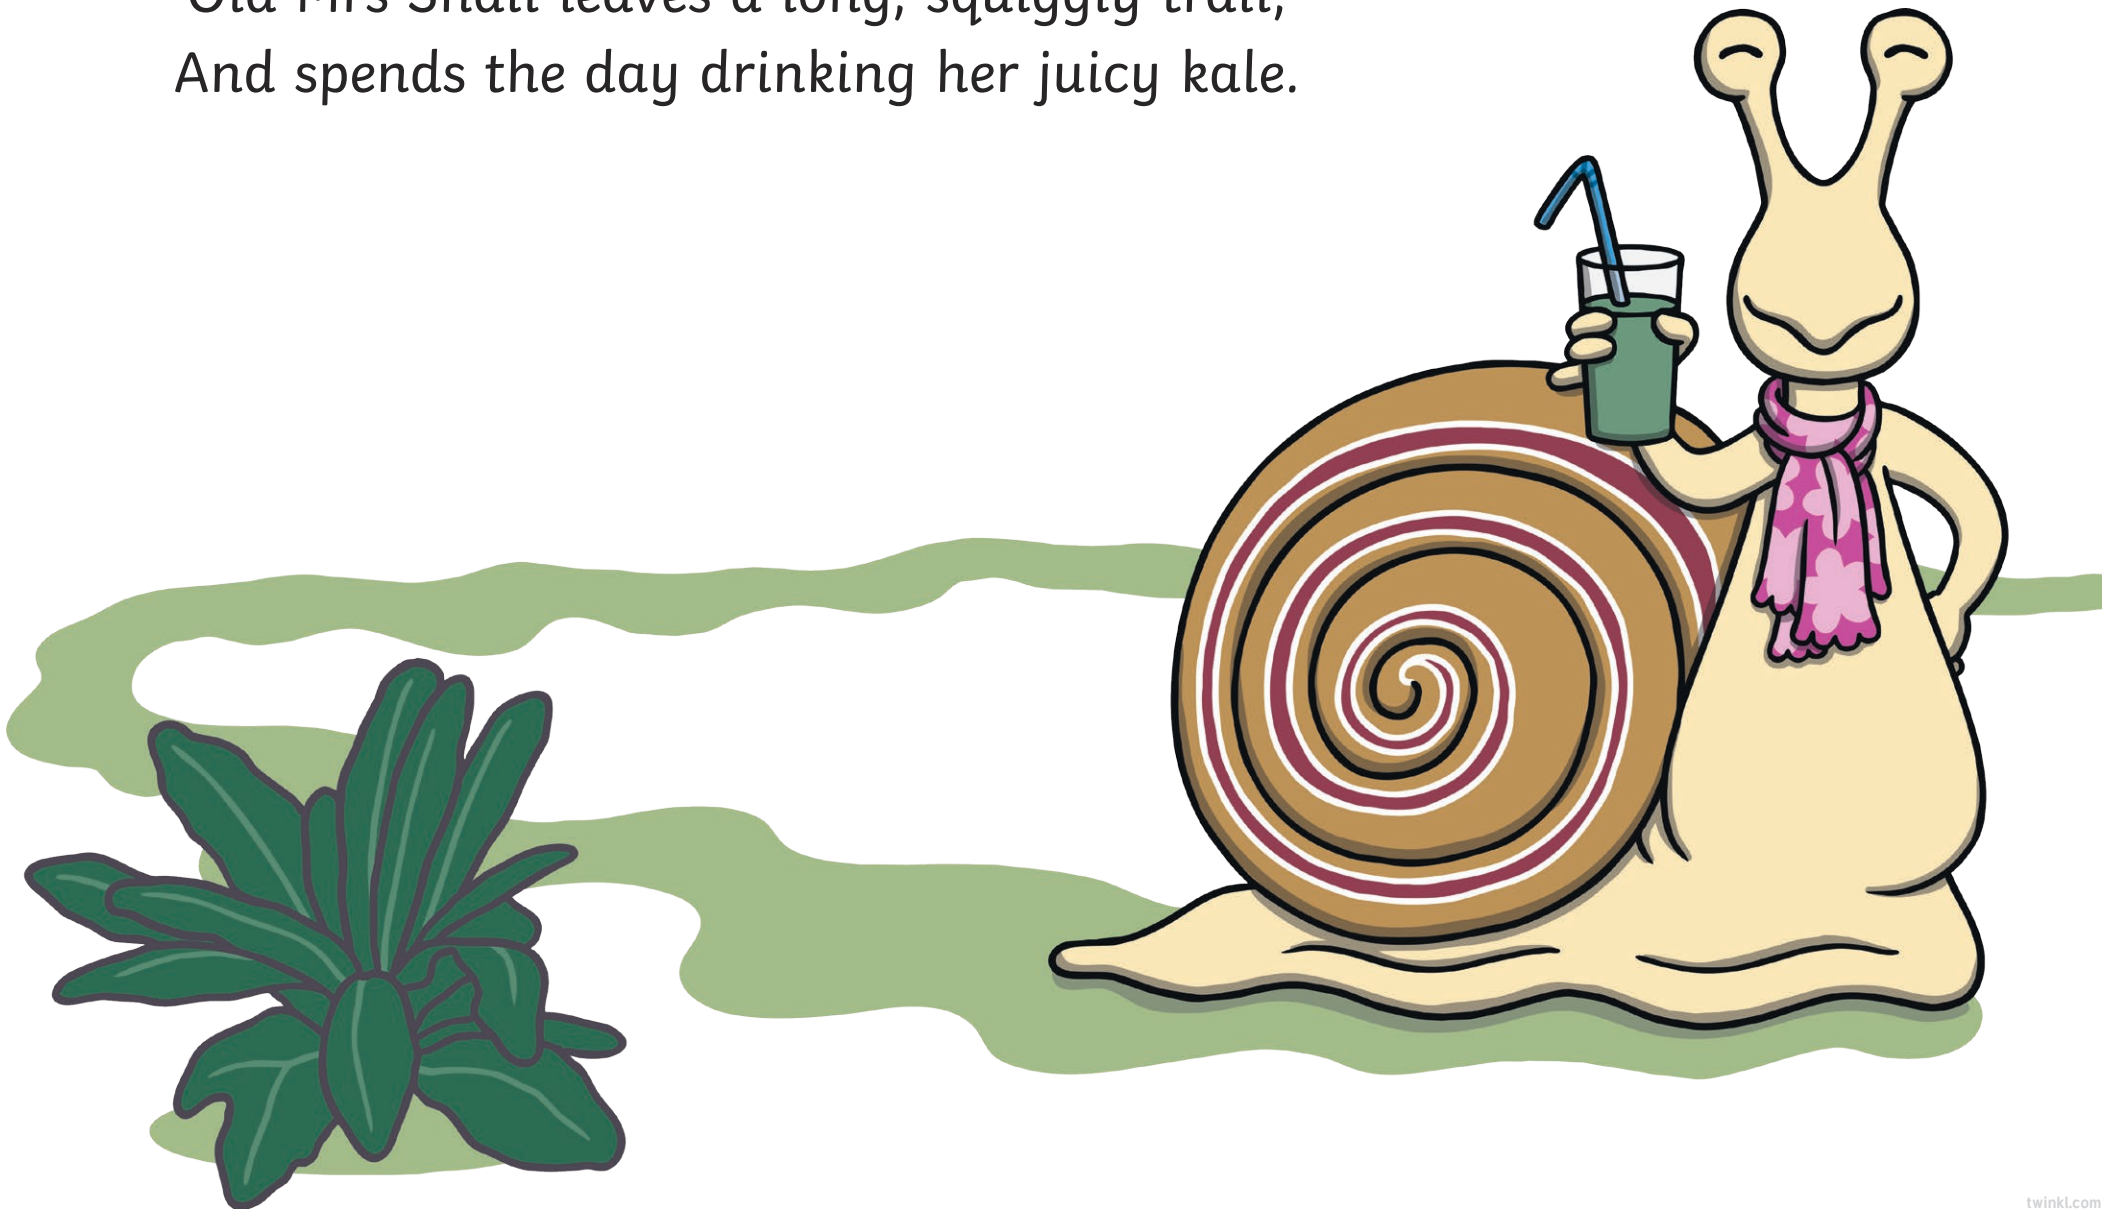

Rachit Rabbit is a crazy inventor,
Causing sparks in his lab – wear
goggles to enter!

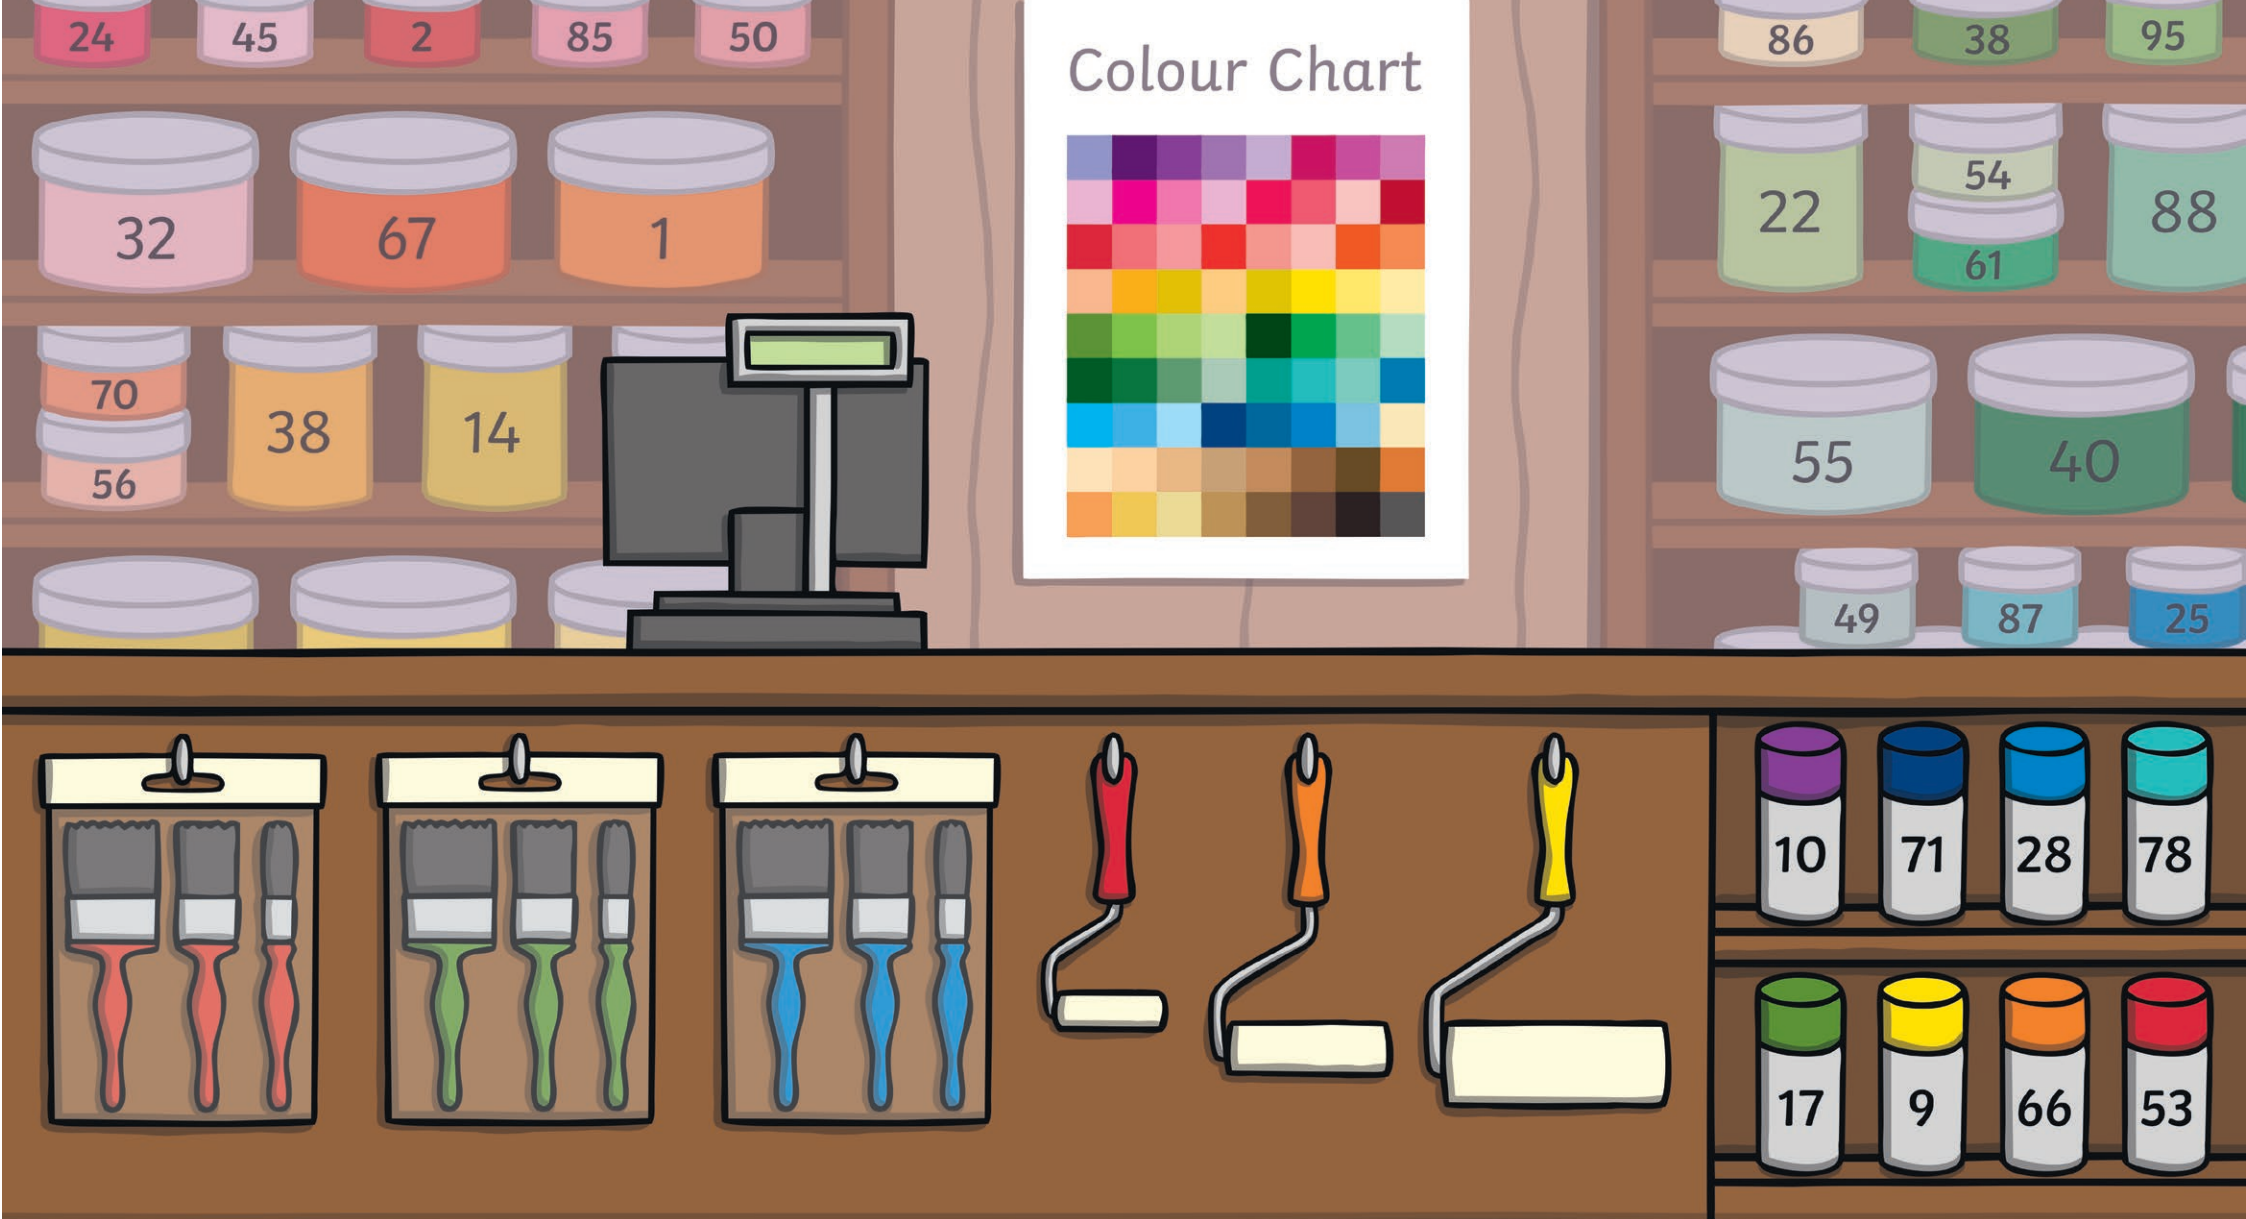

Old Mrs Snail leaves a long, squiggly trail,
And spends the day drinking her juicy kale.

Peter Pig is a clumsy boy scout,
He always has accidents when he goes out.

Samster Hamster owns a paint potting shop,
He sells lots of colours in different-sized pots.

This brightly coloured cottage
Is my favourite by far,
Let's see who's inside -
The door is ajar.

Look! It's Samster Hamster
Making food for his pet.
And that pet is ME -
The best friend you can get!

I have to go now and eat my tea,
I hope you enjoyed your flight with me.

Infinity Forest is fun to explore,
Can you remember what you saw?
