

Feed the Birds

The garden was covered in snow.

The birds looked cold and hungry.

Orla felt sorry for them. She got some wood, some nails and a hammer. She made a bird table.

It was not easy, so Mammy helped her.

Then she dug a hole in the garden.

Her hands became very cold, so Daddy helped her.

They put the bird table standing in the hole.

Orla put some bread and some warm water on the bird table.

Soon, lots of birds came to eat and drink at the bird table. Orla was happy.
