

The Ship and the Shark

A ship was at sail. It had been a long trip.

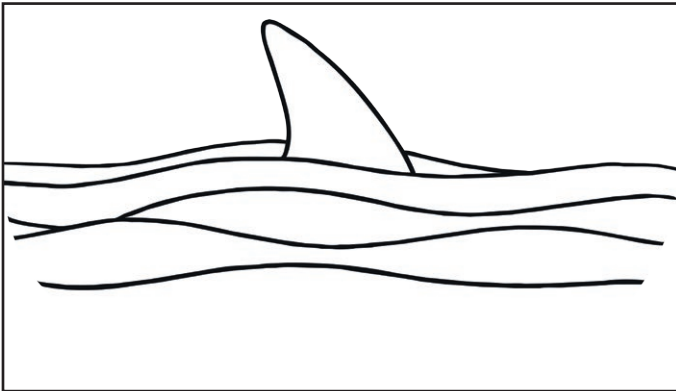

Captain Shep was looking for fish, for the fish and chip shop. He was cross. No fish had been seen!

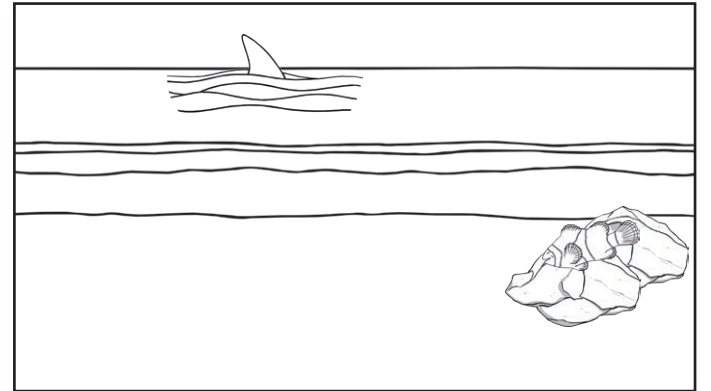

On a dark night, the ship crashed into a cliff. The captain fell in!

Near the ship, a shark was swimming. The shark's fin went to Shep.

He was yelling for help. The shark put the captain on his back and took him back to the ship.

As a thank you, Captain Shep put a fish on a rock for the shark.
