Aims and Objectives

-  To support the values, ethos, moral and ethical framework of the school
-  To promote an awareness around Period Dignity/ Menstrual Wellbeing in an inclusive manner
-  This policy supports children and young peoples' strategy for Northern Ireland
-  It takes account of The Equality Act \(sexual Orientation\) Regulations \(Northern Ireland\) 2006

Availability

-  Products offered: A variety of period products will be available, including disposable pads and tampons
-  Location: Free period products will be accessible in:
  - ✓ Adult female toilets
  - ✓ A self-service area in the AR library (storage cupboard)
  - ✓ Classrooms of Female Key Stage 2 staff

Commitment to Dignity and Privacy

We are committed to ensuring that the process of obtaining period products respects the dignity and privacy of all users. Products will be discreetly available and no individual should feel the need to request them publicly.

Monitoring and Evaluation

The availability of products will be regularly monitored by designated staff to ensure that supplies are maintained and that the needs of users are met. Feedback will be continuously sought to improve the service.

Communication

Information regarding the availability of free period products will be communicated through:

-  Posters displayed in key areas of the school
-  Discussions in Key Stage 2 classes
-  Digital communication via school platforms
