

Stopping by Woods

Robert Frost was an American poet, writing earlier this century.

STOPPING BY WOODS ON A SNOWY EVENING

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

ROBERT FROST

A

- 1 What reason does the poet give in the first verse for stopping in the woods?
- 2 Why won't the owner of the woods see the poet?
- 3 How did the poet reach the woods?
- 4 Write down the word in the second verse that tells you it is very cold.
- 5 Write down two sounds that break the silence of the woods.

B

- 1 Write down three things the poet likes about the woods.
- 2 Why is the horse surprised when they stop by the woods?
- 3 The poet describes the wind as an easy wind. What does the word easy tell you about the way the wind is blowing?
- 4 Write down the words used in the poem that tell you the poet is on a long journey.
- 5 Why is the poet going on this journey?
- 6 What do you think the poet would like to do most of all?

C

When Robert Frost wrote this poem he made sure the first three verses followed a pattern.

Each verse had four lines.

Each line had eight syllables.

The first, second and fourth line of each verse rhymed.

The third line of each verse rhymed with the first line of the next verse.

Using the same pattern write two verses of your own.

Write about:

Walking to school on a rainy morning.

Write out the sentence and underline the pronouns.

A Write out the ^{*}pronouns in the following sentences.
