2. What we expect our staff to do during this time

- We expect all our staff to support pupils in adjusting to the many new expectations to maintain the health and well-being of all members of the school community.
- We always expect staff to lead by example and endeavour to follow social distancing rules, with staff, visitors, parents and pupils.

- We expect all our staff to address any behaviour that is unacceptable within their classroom
- Staff will address poor behaviour by speaking to the pupil and giving them an instruction to stop the witnessed behaviour before logging on SIMS the poor behaviour witnessed
- Behaviours will be monitored by the relevant Year head.
- Where the behaviour of a pupil gives us cause for concern regarding the safety of themselves and others, we expect our staff to contact the pastoral team for support.
