

Reading – eBook Access

As pupils are unable to take books from school, there are a number of websites where they can access ebooks. Continuing to read is important from an educational point of view but especially at this difficult time, reading for enjoyment can be an excellent use of time whether that is reading independently or reading and sharing stories with others.

Oxford Owl

Register for an account and access a range of books geared towards children from age 3-11.

https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/?view=image&query=&type=book&age_group=Age+4-5&level=&level_select=&book_type=&series=#

World Book Online

World Book Online has just made their fabulous collection of over 3,000 ebooks and audiobooks available for free for children to access at home. They have books suitable for all ages. Click on the following link to access them. <https://worldbook.kitaboo.com/reader/worldbook/index.html...>

Libraries NI

You can also download library ebooks and audiobooks from Libraries NI. Follow the instructions in the link below.

<https://www.librariesni.org.uk/Pages/eBooks.aspx>

Audible

Amazon has provided hundreds of children's books free to listen to now on Audible for Kids. No accounts or passwords are needed. Just click, stream and listen! Titles are curated by age group with collections for primary school children to teenagers and offer a screen-free alternative that may be a helpful way to break up the day for families with children home from school.

<https://stories.audible.com/start-listen>