Step 7: Pick an activity below

If you are reading a fiction book, here are some ideas you might like to try:

- write a list of the adjectives in the story
- write a list of verbs in the story
- write a list of nouns in the story
- change the adjectives/ verbs/ nouns in the story. Make sure the sentence still makes sense
- write a list of new words in the book. Put them into a new sentence.
- write your own short story with the same characters as the story
- write a new ending to the story

If you are reading a non- fiction book, here are some ideas:

- write a list of the adjectives in the report
- write a list of verbs in the report
- write a list of nouns in the report
- write down two new facts you learned from the book
- design an information poster showing some of the information that you learned from your book

*Every parent/guardian will receive a text with teacher's username and pupil's password. If you haven't received a text by Thursday the 30th of April, email msormsby@preslimerick.ie, and the username and your child's login password will be sent to you.
