Webwise Parents - Safe and Empowered: Supporting Children Online With Colman Noctor

The series of FREE Online Safety Webinars is a great opportunity for parents/guardians with children in primary school to get practical advice to help support their child in the digital world.

The events will explore the opportunities and challenges of the online world with expert advice from Child Psychotherapist Colman Noctor. Webwise will also outline our suite of advice and resources for families. If there are parents in the school community who are interested in attending one of these free sessions, the links to register are outlined below:
