1. FOREWORD

In Tannaghmore Primary School all complaints are taken seriously, and are dealt with through due process, as outlined in this School Complaints Procedure.

Tannaghmore Primary School is a 'Child Centred School'; consistent with the school Vision Statement, we have the best interests of all our pupils and their families at the centre of all we do. In this regard, we encourage anyone with a concern to speak to us as soon as possible. We firmly believe that if concerns are dealt with at an early stage, then they are more likely to be successfully resolved, and there is no unnecessary dissatisfaction.

Many issues/concerns can be addressed simply by talking to the relevant staff in school who will be most willing to help. Open communication and regular engagement, between the school staff and the wide range of users, is of key importance in ensuring the effective management of Tannaghmore Primary School and the provision of a safe and secure environment for all pupils.

We welcome 'open communication' with all of our staff; you can speak to staff through following the normal protocol for communication with staff. Opportunities may present through casual/informal interaction with staff, at the beginning or end of the school day, or through the medium of a brief note or record in child's homework diary, to share an issue/concern which may be of a less serious nature. However, where the issue/concern is of a more serious nature, a more 'formal meeting', if required, can be arranged (at a mutually convenient time) through the school office or through making direct contact the staff member.

Apart from the scheduled Parent/Teacher Meetings, as arranged annually by the school, parents/guardians are welcome to make an appointment at any time during the year, and the staff and governors of Tannaghmore Primary School would encourage you to do so, if anything arises about which you are concerned.

- If you have any issues/concerns – in the first instance, you are encouraged to please talk to your child's teacher – as soon as possible.
- Apart from those issues/concerns which can be easily resolved by your child's teacher, all other concerns should be raised with either the Vice Principal or the Principal.

Please note – In Tannaghmore Primary School, we take all concerns seriously and pledge to make every effort to resolve matters as quickly as possible.

This Complaints Procedure is an ‘interim procedure’ – modelled upon that developed by the Education Authority and presented to schools on 19-09-17, and recommended for ratification by the school Board of Governors – in CCMS Circular 2017/10 of 22-09-17; the procedure will be subject to review by June 2025.
