Dear Parent

An educational visit is being arranged as set out below and, with your permission, your child may be included in the party. This visit is not an optional extra but has been planned to support a class curriculum topic.

The visit will be supervised by teachers from the school and organised according to the guidelines laid down by the Education Authority – North Eastern Region for such events. It may be necessary for parents to make the teacher-in-charge aware of any conditions likely to affect their child's safety or welfare during this particular visit. Further information about the visit may be obtained by contacting the teacher-in-charge or the school Principal.
