

Through our curriculum we help children learn to take responsibility for their own behaviour and we also make them aware of those people they can talk to if they are unhappy or have any problems.

All staff and volunteers will undergo an Enhanced Criminal Records Check. The staff and volunteers involved will be made aware of the Code of Conduct for Staff.

This leaflet is intended as a summary of school procedures relating to safeguarding and child protection. A detailed copy of the school safeguarding policy is available in the school office as are all related policies listed below

DEFINITION OF CHILD ABUSE: Child Abuse occurs when a child is neglected, harmed or not provided with proper care. They can be abused by those known to them or more rarely, by a stranger.

There are different types of Child Abuse.

Neglect: The persistent or significant neglect of a child, or the failure to protect a child from exposure to any kind of danger as well as persistent failure to carry out important aspects of care, resulting in impairment of the child's health or development.

Emotional: Persistent or significant emotional ill-treatment or rejection, resulting in severe adverse effects on the emotional, physical and /or behavioural development of a child

Physical: Physical injury to a child, whether deliberately inflicted or knowingly not prevented.

Sexual: The sexual exploitation of a child by anyone, adult or another young person, for gratification; this includes exposure of children to sexual activities or materials of any kind which they do not understand, to which they are unable to give informed consent or that violate normal family roles.

Exploitation: Is the intentional ill-treatment, manipulating or abuse of power and control over a child or young person; to take selfish or unfair advantage of a child or young person or situation, for personal gain. This includes: begging, child labour, slavery, servitude, engagement in criminal activity, benefit or financial fraud and or child trafficking.
