Home Learning Ideas

Personal, Social + Emotional

* May is the Month of Mary.

-Your child could draw a picture of Mary.
Practise saying Hail Mary with your child.

Physical Development

*The children love making marks with chalk.
Another fun activity is drawing shapes and numbers on the ground and encouraging your child to make them disappear using a paintbrush and a bucket of water.

Language Development

* On Friday 13th we will be enjoying lots of stories as we take part in the Book Trust Pyjamarama Day.
Your child can wear their favourite pyjamas to school.
You could share your child's favourite stories with them at home this week.

Mathematical Experiences

* Ask your child to find their favourite book.
Read the book together and look for mathematical opportunities as you explore the book.

Can you find any numbers in the book? Can you count the characters in the book? Which page has the most cars/flowers etc?

*Model language of time
e.g. First, next, then....*

The Arts

* Your child could draw and decorate their favourite pyjamas in preparation for Book Trust Pyjamarama Day on Friday.

The World Around Us

* See the [Book Trust Pyjamarama
Activity Sheet "Where I sleep"](#)

Talk to your child about their bedroom and where they sleep. Discuss where animals sleep. Can they think of other animals and name where they sleep?
