

Definition of Child Abuse

Child abuse occurs when a child is neglected, harmed or not provided with proper care. They can be abused by those known to them, or more rarely, by a stranger.

There are different types of abuse:

Neglect: The persistent failure to meet a child's physical, emotional and/or psychological needs, likely to cause significant harm, e.g. inadequate food, shelter, clothing or supervision.

Emotional: The persistent emotional ill treatment of a child e.g. conveying to a child that he/she is worthless, unloved or inadequate. Exposing a child to domestic violence, parental substance misuse or adult mental health problems.

Physical: The deliberate physical injury to a child, or the willful or neglectful failure to prevent physical injury or suffering e.g. hitting, shaking, confinement to a room or inappropriately medicating to control behaviour.

Sexual: Involves forcing or enticing a child to take part in sexual activities e.g. physical contact or non-contact activities such as looking at inappropriate material, watching sexual activities or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Grooming: of a child or young person is always abusive and/or exploitative. It often involves perpetrator(s) gaining the trust of the child or young person or, in some cases, the trust of the family, friends or community, and/or making an emotional connection with the victim in order to facilitate abuse before the abuse begins.

Child sexual exploitation: (CSE) is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity.

Procedure if you have a Child Protection allegation against a member of staff:

Child Protection and the Internet.

It is important that children remember that online friends may not be who they say they are. Inappropriate material is available online. Consider using filtering software and agreeing rules about what services you are happy for your children to use.

Child Protection

It is our policy in Milltown Primary School to safeguard the welfare of the children in our care by endeavouring to protect them from all types of harm.

The following principles form the basis of our Child Protection Policy.

- It is a child's right to feel safe at all times, to be heard, listened to and taken seriously.
- We have a pastoral responsibility towards the children in our care and should take all reasonable steps to ensure their welfare is safeguarded and safety is preserved.
- In any incident the child's welfare must be paramount, this overrides all other considerations.
- A proper balance must be struck between protecting children and respecting the rights and needs of parents and families; but where there is conflict the child's interest must always come first.

This leaflet is intended only as a summary of the main aspects of the Schools Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy. The full policy can be obtained from the School Office or on our school website at www.milltownprimaryschool.co.uk

In all our dealings and relationships with pupils it is vital to affirm the self-worth of the individual and to nurture good relationships between home and school.

All staff have received Child Protection Awareness Training which is updated regularly.

The care, welfare and protection of children is of paramount importance at all times. The school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy is based upon the guidelines and recommendations issued by DENI, "Safeguarding and Child Protection – A Guide for Schools" 2017 and kept updated with new recommendations and legislation.

Our Code of Practice is designed to

- Protect children
- Respect the rights and feelings of families
- Safeguard those who work in the school from the consequences of unfounded allegations

Responsibility to Report

Any member of staff who knows or suspects that a pupil is being harmed or is at risk of being harmed has a duty to convey his/her concern to the Designated Teacher/Principal.

Every possible care is taken to minimize the possibility of mistaken referrals but this cannot be guaranteed. The consequence of not reporting suspicions if a child is being harmed could be far more serious than making a report which proves to be unfounded.

If a disclosure is made outside of school hours (e.g. on a school trip) the following number will be contacted - Regional Emergency Social Work Service (02895049999).

How a Parent Can Make a Complaint

If a parent has a potential child protection concern, follow the guidance below:
