

Dear Parents,

As you already know, National Parents Council (NPC) is the only representative organisation for parents of children in primary, post primary and early years education. As part of this role, we are emailing you today regarding a new National Strategy on Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Literacy. Please read below for more information and to participate in this important survey! Your voice truly matters.

The Department of Education and the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration and Youth are jointly developing a new National Strategy on Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Literacy.

This strategy aims to support children and young people's ability to read, write, use numbers and safely and confidently used technology and the Internet. We would appreciate if you could take a few minutes to tell us about your experiences of the supports available to help children develop their literacy, numeracy and digital literacy, and what needs to be improved.
