

What's On March 2025

World Book Day

Thursday 6th March is World Book Day, Sharing stories together for just ten minutes a day will encourage a love of reading and it's fun for everyone! You can read together anywhere and everywhere, from breakfast to bedtime! In the park, on the train, on the sofa, on a plane - reading and sharing stories can happen anywhere at any time. We will be celebrating the story 'The Tiger Who came to tea' The children will make tiger masks and have a tea party! Why don't you read your child's favourite book. NI libraries usually run events on the day and The World Book Day official site has lots of fun activities for you to share with your child., so log on to see the events. Your child will also get a book voucher to spend.

Jo Jingles

Jo jingles will continue to join us again for movement and songs.

Five little speckled frogs

Five little speckled frogs,
Sat on a speckled log,
Eating some most delicious bugs.
Yum yum!
One jumped into the pool,
Where it was nice and cool,
Then there were four speckled frogs.
Glub glub!

Chick, chick, chick, chicken
Lay a little egg for me
Chick, chick, chick chicken
I'd like one for my tea
I haven't had an egg since breakfast
And now its half past 3
So chick, chick, chick, chicken
Lay a little egg for me

Five little ducks

Five little ducks went swimming one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack quack quack quack"
And only four little ducks came back!

Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said, "Quack quack quack quack"
And all her five little ducks came back!

(To the tune of London Bridge)

Daffodils are growing now, growing now, growing now

Daffodils are growing now, in the spring time Lambs are leaping in the fields, in the fields, in the fields

*Lambs are leaping in the fields in the spring time
Birds are busy building nests, building nests, building nests.*
