

Area	Strengths	Improvements	How
Wellbeing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •The wellbeing of the whole school community is central to the school's ethos/mission statement and school leaders and management actively promote wellbeing. • The school communicates with parents about the supports that are in place regarding the promotion of the wellbeing of children and young people. • The relationship between academic achievement and a child/young person's wellbeing is understood by all children and young people and staff in the school. • Opportunities are provided for children and young people, staff and parents to have an active voice in decisions relating to school improvement. • The indoor space displays the work, talents and accomplishments of children and young people. • School leaders and management understand the link between physical activity and wellbeing and facilitate physical activity and movement breaks within the school environment. • The school environment is conducive to promoting healthy eating choices. Drinking water is freely available and rewards other than food are used to motivate children and young people. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Indoor and outdoor space will be established to facilitate social interaction and physical activity and quiet time to a greater extent. •School leaders and management will understand the link between physical activity and wellbeing and facilitate physical activity and movement breaks within the school environment to a greater and more consistent extent. •The school will recognise that wellbeing is as important for the staff as for the children and young people. Appropriate supports will be made available for staff wellbeing. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Paint the school and plant flowers. •Establish a Sensory Garden •Establish a Safer Routes to School •Supply equipment for yard games. •Provide classes with games and jigsaws for wet days. •Wellbeing Booklet for daily movement breaks. •Buddy system between classes. •Establish a Wellbeing Committee (Staff) and Amber Flag Committee (Pupils). •CPD and Guest Speakers for Staff Professional Development. •Further enhance our communication with the school community.