THE POWER OF NATURE IN ITS PUREST STATE

The Universe has given us everything we need to live: the four primordial elements of Earth, Air, Fire and Water, and all the wonderful gifts of Nature. All the elements are in symbiosis, and connected to each other by energy pathways. We human beings are also part of this great energy network, and so react to its vibrations with varying degrees of sensitivity. These ground-breaking treatments use the interaction of these various energy forces and make the hidden energies of the Universe accessible to human beings.

INTENSIVE DETOX CASTANEA BACK MASSAGE

80 min.

Tense muscles contain acid. Thanks to the paste based on salt and honey crystals, the acids are extracted from the muscles and lungs by means of pumping and cupping movements. In this way the wastes and adhesions are dissolved and the lymphatic flow is activated.

The intensive back massage with St. John's wort relaxes the nerves, muscles and intervertebral discs.

A massage of the connective tissue on the abdomen is then carried out with a liver pack, to promote detoxification on a physical and emotional level.

The intestine, not surprisingly, is also called the "second brain" and is the point where stress and tension converge.

This treatment helps fight abdominal bloating, constipation, migraines, muscle stiffness, anxiety, depression, fungal diseases, rheumatic diseases and the loss of vitality often caused by the accumulation of toxins.

The organs that make up the excretory system, the liver, lungs, kidneys and intestines, are relieved.

The treatment activates the intestinal lymphatic system and is excellent for the elimination of toxins, rebalancing the nervous system.

The intensity and technique of this massage activate the flow of energy in the back, improve the mobility of the spine and head, and release the basic tension in the back, neck and lumbar muscles.

This treatment is also extremely effective in reactivating the immune system.

In addition, the reflex zones of the feet are stimulated.

€ 140.00

INTENSIVE DE-ACIDIFICATION OF THE WHOLE BODY VITALIS D^R JOSEPH

80 min.

The skin is prepared with a body brushing massage, using a mixture of salt and oil. The pores open, the salt penetrates the deeper layers of the skin, and the oil gently nourishes. Cupping accelerates the removal of wastes through the lymph. A cayenne pepper gelatine compress is then applied with moist bandages. The warm compress on the whole body with strong cleansing properties deacidifies and purifies the tissues and regenerates them. This treatment cleanses and relieves the tissue from wastes that pollute the metabolism (cellulite). Finally, an alkaline face mask is applied to clean skin. The alkalinity of the mask helps to eliminate acids and wastes through the sebaceous glands and, in this way, stimulates a pleasant self-lubrication and regeneration of the skin.

(excellent during slimming treatments and against cellulite)

SAUNA - HERE'S HOW IT WORKS!

Meals

Avoid heavy meals before entering the sauna.

Sports and sauna

Wait until your pulse rate is normal before entering the sauna.

First of all: have a shower

Always shower before your first session in the sauna, washing and drying yourself carefully. Do not enter the sauna when wet: it will delay the sweating process.

Sauna sessions

Whatever type of sauna you choose, a maximum of three sessions is advisable. The rest intervals should last at least as long as the sauna sessions.

Duration

The first session should last from eight to twelve minutes, the second and third sessions for a maximum of 15 minutes. The same principle always holds: short and hot is better than long and warm.

Nude sauna

There are very specific reasons for entering the sauna completely naked: this is the only way the skin can absorb the optimal amount of moisture and sweat in the correct manner. Bathing costumes or boxer shorts are a breeding ground for bacteria, and as the sauna can become very hot, there is even a risk of them melting.

Steam jets

During the process of steam discharge, the humidity in the air increases by about 50%. The body is exposed to additional heat. Fan the air with a cloth and wait until the steam diffuses. The steam jet function is best used at the end of the sauna session.

Cooling off

After a sauna session, cool off in the open air. Walk up and down to stimulate your circulation. Then rinse yourself with cold water (always working towards the heart) or take a cold shower (with a bucket of cold water or crushed ice).

Rest

After taking a cold shower, it is advisable to rest for at least 15 minutes. Cover up well to avoid getting cold.

Drink enough liquids

Do not drink during sauna sessions, just after the final one. This is the only way the body can be properly detoxified.

Shower

After the last sauna session, do not use soap or shower gel when taking a shower, as the skin will already be thoroughly cleansed. If you use soap products, your skin will dry out and its protective acid coating will lose its natural balance. After the shower, care for your skin by applying a good quality cream.
