EARTHLINES

Fall~ 2019

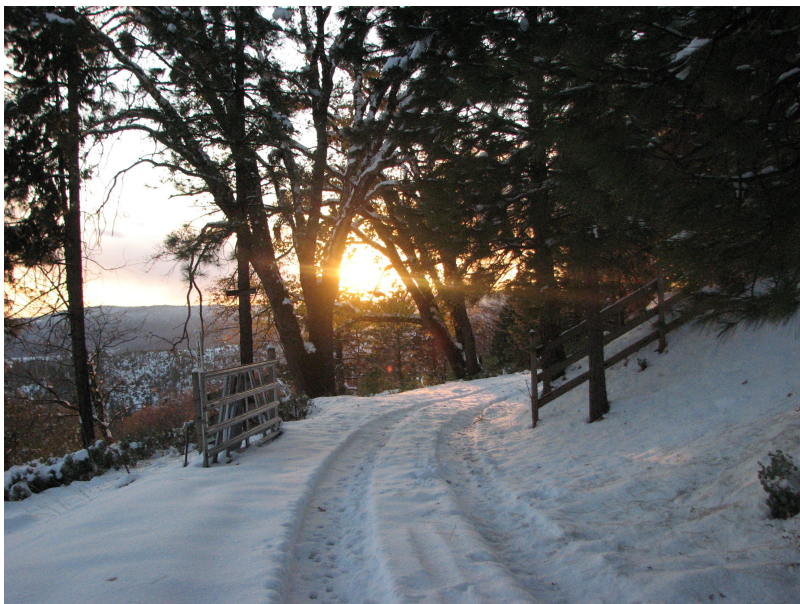

Happy Thanksgiving

It has been a glorious fall! And now, as I write, snow is falling. The spectacular display of black oaks turned golden light is now hushed. A new season is upon us.

And for those of you who have been following The Lioness Tale Prison Project, there is also a change of seasons and a changing of the guard, (so to speak).

paroled. Some of you have heard this, but I didn't want to let this season of thanksgiving pass without letting all of you who held Judith in your heart, and this outcome in your mind, know this good news.

You might remember that last year another one of our core inmate facilitators, Jackie, was also paroled. Judith and Jackie did a superb job training a new generation of inmate facilitators to carry on the program at the Central California Women's Facility. And together we prepared a new generation of outside facilitators to take my place as well.

Russell Jensen and Nikki Fryn, both of whom have been deeply engaged with the program over the last two years, are taking on the work inside CCWF. They led the last group of inmate graduates through the advanced facilitator training and are currently working with them, creating a next generation of LiT-uPP leaders. Now I am looking toward being Emeritus, empowering others to do the work inside while I remain open to writing, speaking and other ways to continue to support this project from the outside.

But enough for now. I just want to say how we could not have brought this program to where it is today without all the ways you have supported it over these last ten years! Thank you. Thank you. Thank you!

Wear gratitude like a cloak, and it will feed every corner of your life - Rumi

Gratefully,
Diane

on behalf of the entire LiT-uPP community
