

SLOCEA ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP

In an effort to assist new and continuing students with their academic planning and success, San Luis Obispo County Employees' Association (SLOCEA) will be awarding up to $4,000 in academic scholarships. The SLOCEA Academic Scholarship is awarded annually to SLOCEA members or members of their immediate family who want to begin or continue their secondary education. The SLOCEA Board of Directors will award scholarships to applicants demonstrating the best overall performance in academic achievement, community service, and school activities.

Scholarship Guidelines:

A student may not receive more than one SLOCEA Sponsored Academic Scholarship Award in any one academic year. Scholarships are limited to two awards per eligible applicant for the duration of membership of the qualifying SLOCEA member. All scholarships awarded will be payable to the student's scholarship fund set up at the school of their choice.

Academic scholarships will be based on:

- Academic Achievement
- Community Service
- School Activities (clubs, sports teams, student government, leadership, etc.) Continuing and/or returning students will be given separate consideration in this category.

Minimum Requirements:

- Open to SLOCEA members and their immediate family.
- Must be a citizen of the United States or a permanent legal resident.
- Must enroll in a program as a regular student seeking a degree or certificate.
- First-time freshman and continuing students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. The SLOCEA Scholarship Review Committee will recognize academic performance and determine ranking based on, but not limited to, the grade point average results.

Application Process:

Submit to SLOCEA's business office no later than May 15, 2021 the following items:

- Application Form: available at SLOCEA's business office or can be downloaded from SLOCEA's web site at www.slocea.org on the home page and the "Benefits" page.
