SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIFORNIA, – Calling all artists! The SLO County Air Pollution Control District (APCD) is excited to announce its first ever Art Mural Contest. The APCD is looking to partner with a local artist from San Luis Obispo County to showcase their creativity and design in the form of a mural displayed in the APCD's Auditorium.

The general theme of this contest is "Community's Vision of Clean Air." The artist selected will be determined based on the following criteria:

- Interpretation and the clarity of the theme,
- Creativity and originality of design, and
- Quality of artistic composition and overall design.

Any local artist, 15 or older, can apply for this contest. In addition to displaying their creativity and design at the APCD office, the winner will also receive countywide recognition through a press release, advertisement in media outlets and at a ribbon cutting celebration. In addition, the winner will receive an $800 prize, a $200 stipend towards the cost of supplies to complete the project and recognition at the January 27, 2016 APCD Board Meeting.
