

small group QUESTIONS

Your response to the sermon

Sometimes we feel like we have all the answers, and other times, we have only questions that seem unanswerable. In looking over your outline from this last weekend, what ways can you better respond to your own doubts or the doubts of others? (Sometimes not having an immediate answer is the best “answer” you can give when someone has a question.)

The story of your life

Notice how Pastor Shawn has left us in the last Section (III) of the outline with a biblical focal point. The Bible may not speak specifically to any one particular situation we may face, for our time is very different to Old Testament and New Testament times, but there is much wisdom for the Christian life found in its hallowed pages. In what ways have biblical truth changed your life? Share together as a group.

Venturing Further

Look into this collection of verses together:

Deuteronomy 9:6; Acts 7:51

Ezekiel 3:3-7

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

Romans 3:21-26

Living it Out

Everyone faces different Barriers to Belief – the big question is, are those varying barriers going to harden or soften hearts? You may have tough questions, or you may be on the receiving end of tough questions. That is what the church is for, to support and lock arms together in the faith once delivered. How can you best express that this week?
