Your response to the sermon

For each one of us, there has probably been a time in our life when someone has belittled, mocked, or de-valued us as being less than human. It's a miserable feeling. Unfortunately, this is part of the human complex after Eden. But God says something different about you. You are made in His image and likeness. God gives every human being value, and especially for those in Christ, an inestimable worth. Together as a group, reflect on your God-given value with one another in the context of what Jesus Christ has accomplished for you.

The story of your life

Have you ever been wrongly condemned? We seek out justice afterwards, don't we? How about if you've been rightly judged for sin, much like the woman who was caught in adultery? It is in this instance that we do not seek justice, but instead, ask for grace. Realize, that just as Christ comes to the adulterous woman in grace, He comes to us in the same way. Can you share about a time you experienced this?
