

small group QUESTIONS

Your response to the sermon

Looking back at God's people in the Old Testament from this weekend's message - what points stood out most to you?

The story of your life

As New Venture is in an amazing time in it's continuing - and expanding history, how do you apply what we learned this weekend to God's call to us individually, and as a church family?

Venturing Further

From what God spoke to you this weekend in the message what did He say that you can apply to areas of your personal life?

Living it Out

There's nothing like our Small Group, let's take some time, find out what our personal and spiritual needs are - and pray for each other. Trusting God for our provision, as we learned this weekend.
