

Dear CED-IADR Member,

Hopefully, you have enjoyed the end of 2017 and perhaps had some days off so that you are now able to restart your research endeavours with fresh energy.

We would like to restate that the Continental European Division of IADR (CED-IADR) is organizing its congress every other year (biennial). Since we had in 2017 our 'CED-IADR/NOF Oral Health Research Congress' in Vienna, CED-IADR will not organize its own meeting this year.

We nevertheless encourage you to attend the IADR-at-large meeting in London, UK (July 25-28, 2018). In 2018, CED-IADR will have its Board Meeting, General Assembly and the CED-IADR competitions at the London IADR meeting. Please be reminded that the abstract submission deadline for the 2018 IADR/PER meeting in London is February 2, 2018. You can submit your abstract here and indicate by clicking if you want to apply for a CED-IADR award.

Please note already in your agenda that the next CED-IADR/NOF congress will be held in 2019 in Madrid, Spain (September 19-21, 2019).

In promotion of this 2019 congress, we are pleased to announce that we intend to partner with the Spanish Society of Periodontology (SEPA) and SEPA Foundation of Periodontology and Dental Implants.

Partnerships with other scientific associations may follow in future. Interested associations may contact the CED-IADR secretariat in Leuven for further information.

We hereby would like to inform you on two SEPA events (in English) that might be interesting for you:

- 10th Anniversary of SEPA Research Classroom or 'Aula de Investigacion' and its clinical grant competitions, which will take place in Madrid from February 16-17, 2018 (CED-IADR members receive a special reduced fee of only 190 Euro);
- SEPA's Modular Courses Research in Periodontology, which will take place in Madrid from September 2018 to April 2019.

More detailed information regarding these SEPA events can be found in the announcements attached and/or at www.sepa.es.

Kind regards,

CED-IADR secretariat
Leuven, Belgium

