

PROMOTING HIGH-QUALITY ORAL HEALTH RESEARCH IN EUROPE

BE OUR AMBASSADOR

If you feel that...

- ✓ you want to actively help promoting and improving Oral Health Research in Europe,
- ✓ it is important to share ideas among your peers and build networks with other researchers in a close geographical area,
- ✓ you strongly believe in the potential of young researchers and want to help them to get established in the research field, then apply to become a CED-IADR Ambassador and member of the Young CED-IADR Board.

We are looking for enthusiastic members who

- ✓ are conducting research at European level;
- ✓ have strong interpersonal skills;
- ✓ have very good knowledge of English and other European languages.

Send your CV and short motivation letter to ced.iadr@uzleuven.be

Join the first CED-IADR Ambassador Meeting on Thursday, September 21, 2017 at 9 hr at the upcoming CED-IADR/NOF Oral Health Research Congress in Vienna.
