DISCOVER MARSEILLE

Marseille is the main commercial port of France with excellent transportation infrastructure, connecting bustling highways, ancient shipping routes, international airways and railways. Besides being France's second largest city, it is home to the biggest French research centre after Paris, located at the prestigious Aix Marseille University.

Marseille is also very famous for its gastronomy and leisure activities. On top of that, the wonderful weather in September allows for sailing, swimming, hiking and climbing in the famous creeks (les Calanques) ...
