

Munch's Supply recognizes Trane award winners at annual meeting Distributor celebrates Michigan dealer success

Brighton, Michigan April 25, 2018 – Schutz & Co., Inc. received the Trane Sales Award and the Trane Cleaneffects Award from Munch's Supply at its annual Trane dealer meeting on Friday, April 20 in Mount Pleasant, Michigan. This achievement recognized Schutz & Co., Inc. for excellence in Trane equipment and product knowledge.

Munch's Supply is a leading heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC) distributor and third-generation family business based in Illinois. Bob Munch, CEO, said, "It was an honor to present Schutz & Co., Inc. with this prestigious award. We value our business relationship and look forward to their continued success."

The one-day event including informational breakouts and keynote presentations along with a dinner and awards program.

For more than 90 years, Trane has offered one of the deepest and broadest product selections in the HVAC industry with award-winning technology, engineering and manufacturing excellence.

"We are proud to represent Trane and look forward to showcasing our award-winning service to customers in the Livingston County area," said Lena Schutz, Schutz & Co., Inc.

For more information, visit www.schutzheating.com