The Prospectors

Closer to the story. Connected to the future.

Join the Prospectors

Step into another world. Be part of the story that continues to contribute to the future of Ballarat and Victoria.

For more than fifty years, The Sovereign Hill Museums Association (SHMA) has flourished because of people who care deeply — people who recognise the value in preserving our shared history and passing its lessons to the next generation.

The Prospectors are a part of that story — a community of supporters who believe in what we do and choose to stay close to our vision.

When you become a Prospector you join a circle of like-minded individuals who share ideas, celebrate achievements, and help shape the future of one of Ballarat's most treasured institutions.

Together, the Prospectors ensure that Sovereign Hill continues to connect people through history to inspire a stronger more vibrant future for our region.
