NON-DISCLOSURE:

As a Company that employs the Nongovernment Advisor for the Solicitation above,

C.H. Guernsey & Company hereby enters into a Non-Disclosure Agreement with herein after referred to as The Offeror.

We and our employees, herein after referred to as We, understand that in the course of our duties and responsibilities, we may have access to information received by the Government in confidence from The Offeror in connection with the privatization of the utility system(s) including, but not necessarily limited to, procurement sensitive information, confidential finance data, trade secrets, inventions, discoveries, and reports of a financial or technical nature. We understand that "non-public information" includes the following information, which may or may not be deemed to be procurement sensitive: the names, identities, or numbers of offerors, proposal information, and rating methods or procedures used in the evaluation process. We agree not to disclose such information to any individual or organization who is not listed as part of the Source Selection Team in the Source Evaluation/Selection Plan.

We understand our obligation not to disclose the information described in the above paragraphs does not terminate with the award of a conveyance document and utility services contract or any other action. We further understand we may not disclose such information to individuals or organizations, including the Nongovernment Advisor's supervisor, without prior written approval from the Contracting Officer.

We acknowledge that failure to comply with these conditions set forth above regarding our obligation not to disclose information may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment, or termination of our Government contract.
