

Rumpelstiltskin

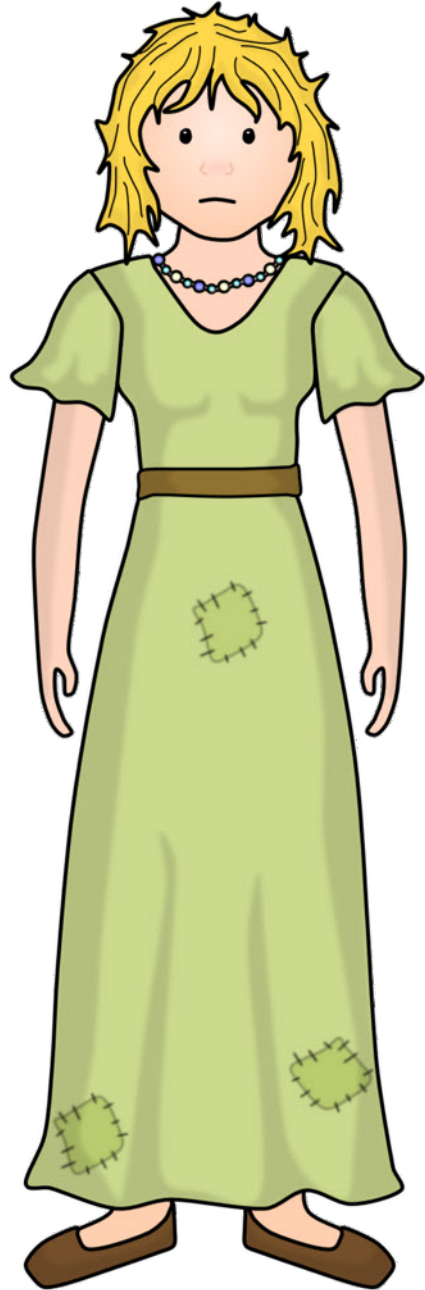

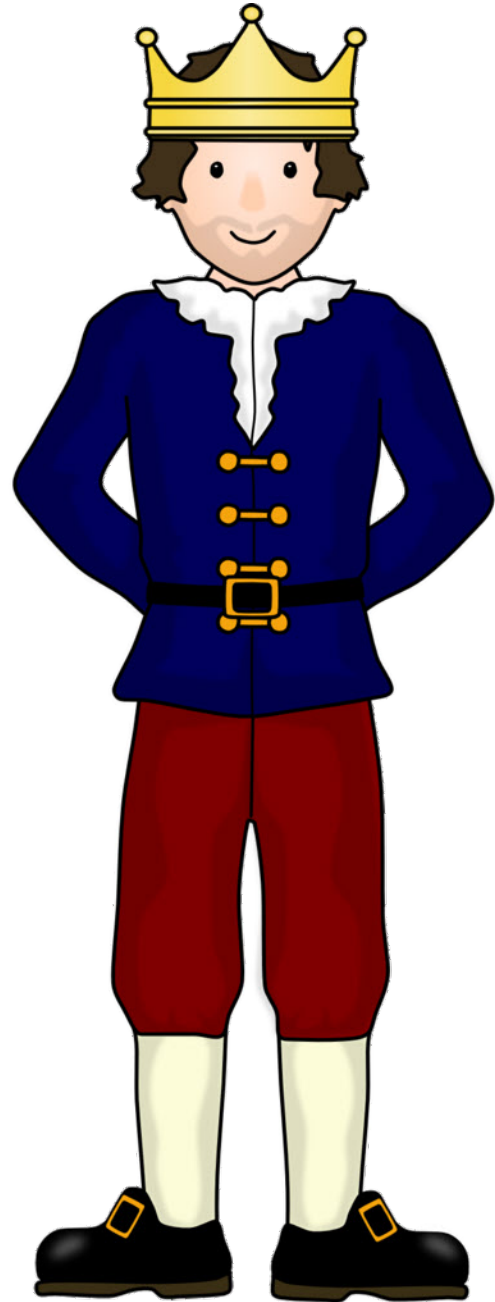

Rumpelstiltskin

miller

miller's daughter

king

The miller couldn't pay his taxes.
He tried to trick the king.

I will give you my daughter.
She can spin straw into gold.

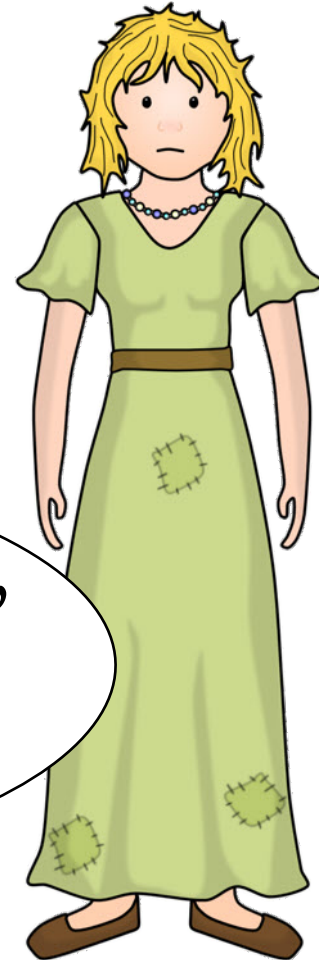

The king locked the daughter in a room full of straw, but she couldn't make gold.

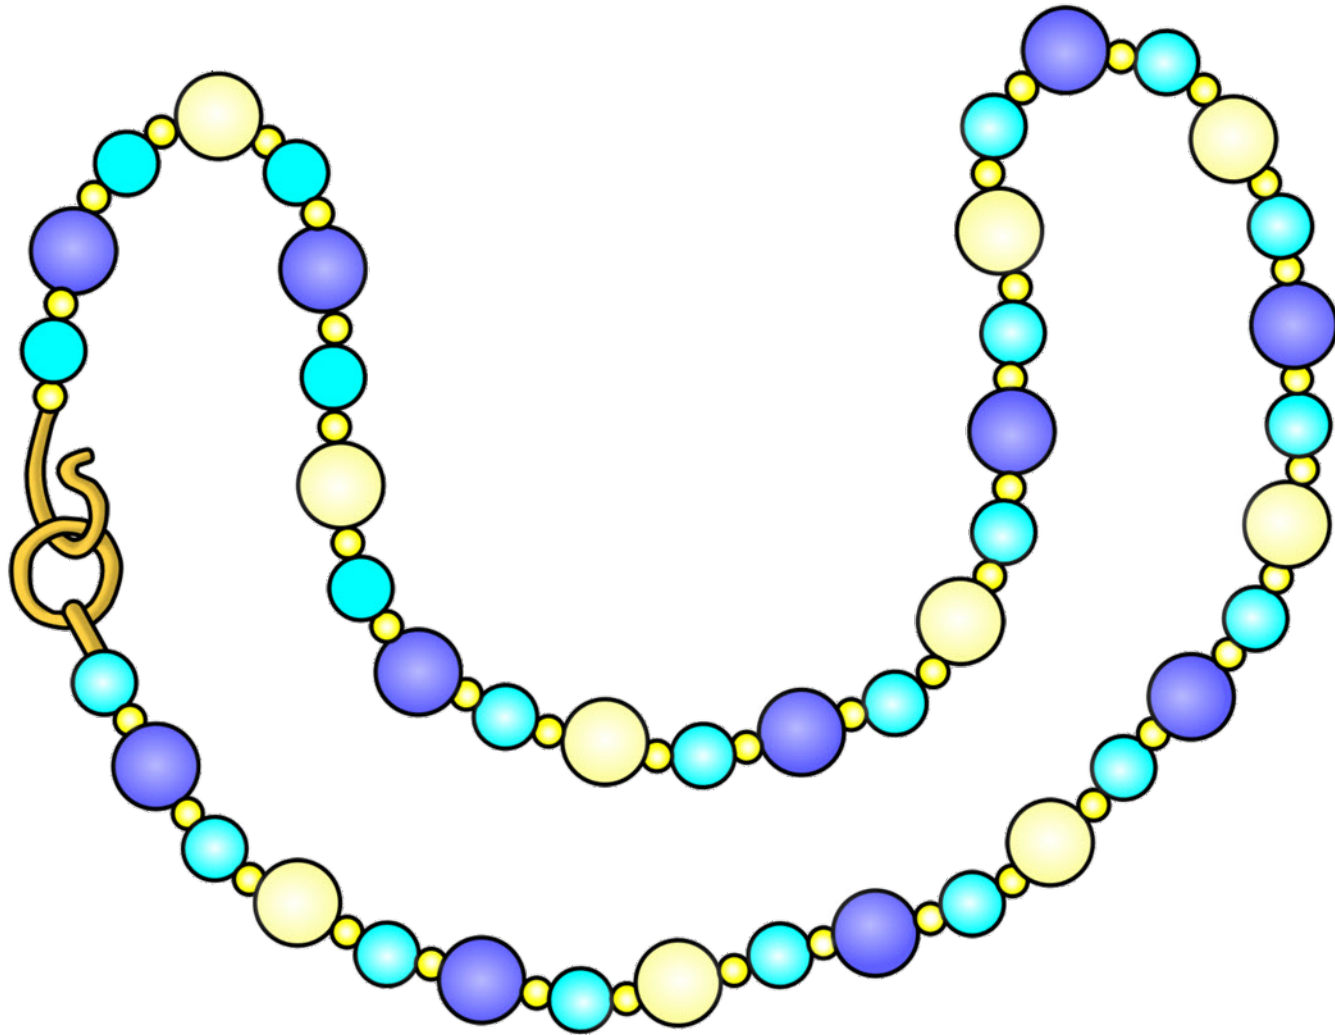

Suddenly the door opened and a strange little man walked in.

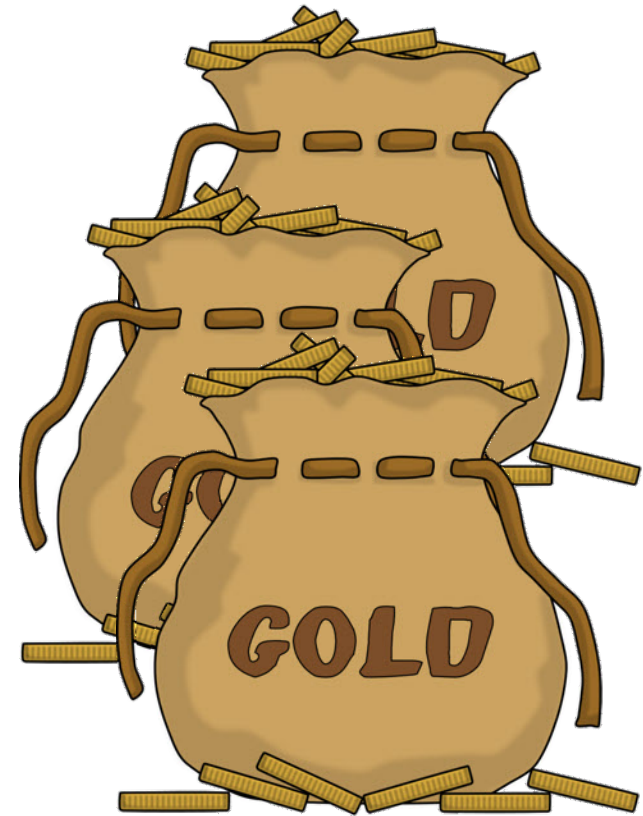

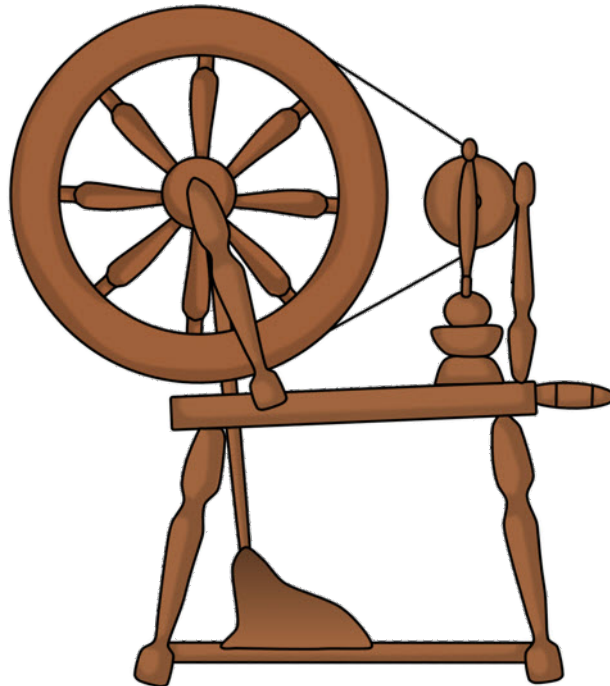

I can help you spin gold,
but I want something in return.

She gave him her necklace.

The little man spun all night and filled the room with gold.

The king became greedy and took the daughter to an even bigger room filled with straw.

The little man helped again and the daughter gave him her ring.

The king became even greedier.
A third time, he locked her in an even bigger room to spin him gold.

The little man came once again but she had nothing more to offer.

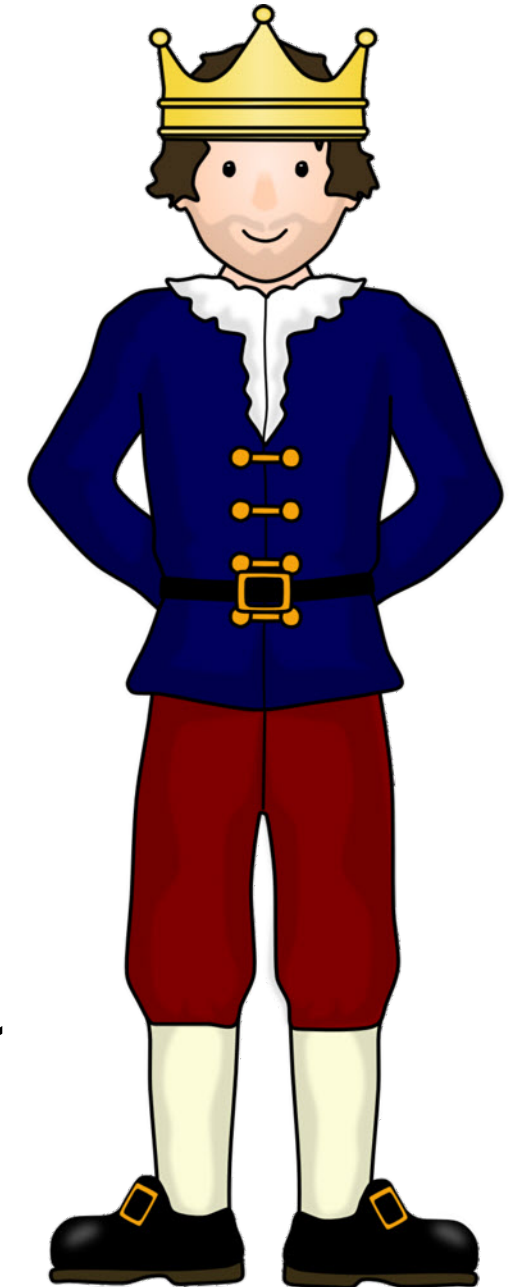

You must give me your first born child after you get married.

The daughter agreed and the little man filled the room with gold.

The king was very happy to see so much gold.

He was touched by the daughter's patience and began to fall in love with her.

The king asked for the daughter's forgiveness.

Some time later,
they got married.

A year later the queen gave birth to a child.

The little man appeared again.

I am here to take what you promised,
remember?

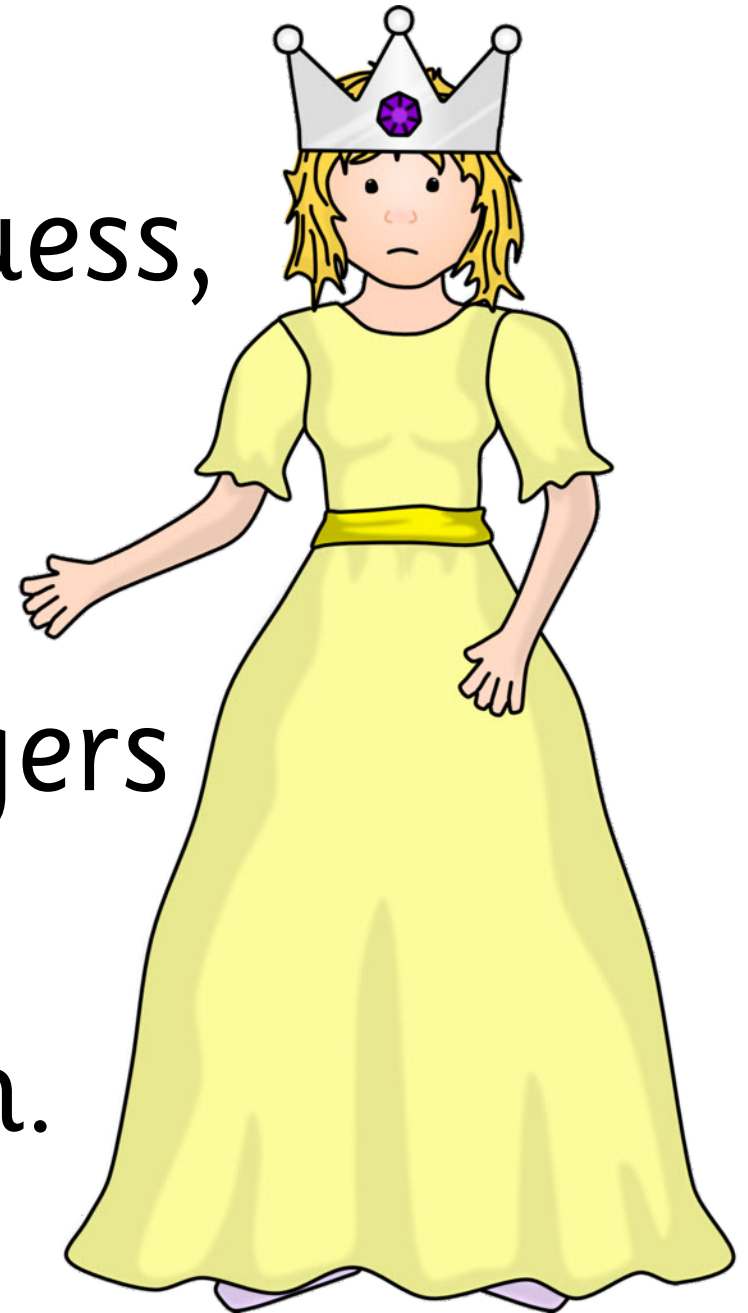

The queen was very sad. She didn't want to give away her child.

Let's play a game.
Guess my name in 3 days,
and you can keep the baby.

The queen tried to guess,
but she couldn't.

She sent out messengers in the kingdom but no one knew the man.

One final messenger saw a strange small man in the forest dancing by a fire.

The queen is never going to win,
For my name is Rumpelstiltskin!

The final night,
the queen played a little game with the man.

Is your name Scattin?

Is your name Ierarhlon?

Is your name...
Rumpelstiltskin?

Rumpelstiltskin was very angry!

He ran away ashamed and was never seen again.
