

Five Little N

Monkeys Sitting

An illustration of two brown monkeys in a tree. One monkey is on the left, partially cut off, and the other is in the center, sitting on a branch. The tree has thick brown branches and several clusters of bright green leaves. The background is a light blue sky. The text 'ng in a Tree' is written in large, white, bold letters with a black outline, positioned across the middle of the image. The 'n' is partially cut off on the left side.
