

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The monsters look odd.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

I don't like spiders!

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Chickens come from eggs.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Which sweets will you choose?

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The alien is flying into space.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The map helped them get back home.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The gift is from mum.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The children are on their bikes.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

You can't catch him!

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Mr

This is Mr Smith.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

We get milk from cows.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

There is just one duck in the pond.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The chameleon was green,
but now it is yellow.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

came

They came on a plane.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Oh no! Humpty is broken.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Do you know a story about a dragon?

Read the word and make it with playdough.

I have got 6 sweets.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

Their jumpers are blue.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

The people are on the bus.

Read the word and make it with playdough.

What colour are your eyes?